

Velvet is an all-time favourite textile that unfolds its character perfectly in modern interior design, creating particularly special accents when jacquard-woven. This is the case with the historically inspired velvets in the VANITY VELVETS collection by JAB ANSTOETZ Fabrics, which bring classic, high-quality designs to the stage.

The velvet fabrics create an atmosphere of warmth and softness. Their velvety, fluffy surface is a tactile experience, while their elegant sheen is enchanting. The dense pile reflects the light differently depending on its orientation and the viewing angle, creating graceful plays of colour. This effect is impressively highlighted by the four shadow velvets of the VANITY VELVETS collection. The selection of the colour palette is excellent, elegantly ranging from restrained colourfulness to fresh modernity.

Luxurious designs in authentic colours pay tribute to the furnishings of famous opera houses. CALLAS, for example, is adorned with a decorative medallion pattern, densely and dramatically emphasised by the play of light and shadow. PUCCINI with its diamond pattern and the plain fabric VERDI with its subtle ribbed look are equally elegant in design and materiality. Finally, RAVEL is a high-quality, easy-care textile. All four fabrics are made in Germany.

Elaborate jacquard-woven decoration fabrics form the second line of the collection. Highlights include the classic floral tendril FLORALIA and the graceful small pattern LIVIO. Modern designs like the two-tone, softly flowing LISTRADO stripe and the eye-catching diamond pattern of the fil coupé DIMENSION lighten the predominantly classic look of the collection.

“Shadow velvets are among the most expressive upholstery fabrics. Using an elaborate technique, the pile-forming warp threads are applied in different directions, giving the surfaces their special depth.”
